The moral spirit of our existence is entirely extinct by the long and bitter service, but that there are these military and patriotic feelings is an attempt to make the Government realize that the spirit of Man of all the lower animals is the only one that is left in the volunteer corps of our country. ## Ballots.

Printed Ballots for the Presidential Election may be found at the County Office.

Is Your Name on the Ward List?

Let every Taylor voter see to it that his name is on the Ward List in order that he may have no trouble on Tuesday next. See that the names of your neighbors are on and on sight. Have care to perfect your Ward List, if every one who is entitled to vote may have an opportunity and that the ballot box may be kept pure.

SILAS WRIGHT'S OPINION OF LEWIS CASE.

The Chicago Advertiser furnishes the following recap of political history, extracted from a private letter addressed by Hon. Silas Wright to a gentleman in Monroe County, New York, under date of April 8, 1847.

Alluding to the question of Gen. Taylor, we have had in our suggestions as the probable candidate of the Democracy, he proceeds to

I know nothing of his tastes and qualifications for civil administration. Some brave and successful soldiers have those qualifications in perfection, and some have not a single one of them—but in civil situations are wholly destitute of moral firmness. Our friend General Cass is one of them—a good soldier in his day, but afraid of his own shadow in a civil office, and a perfect time-server and demagogue.

"I do not desire the presidency, and only consent to be a candidate in the same proportion in which it is desired by the people irrespective of party; and he that cannot be trusted without pledges, cannot be trusted without purposes to accomplish—no party projects to build up no enemies to punish—nothing to serve but my country."

[ZACHARY TAYLOR.]

At a free S. 1 paper published in New York entitled the Daily Star, with the aid of Van Buren and Adams at the head of its columns, encourages some of the planks in the Baltimore platform, as follows:

1 Free Trade with the world

2 DIRECT TAXATION for the support of Government

3 A Permanent adherence to the principles of the independent Treasury bill—have nothing to do with paper money—neither create it nor authorize its creation by others, nor use it when created by individuals or States.

Some of our old friends, who have left the Whig ranks to follow the fortunes of Martin Van Buren, must feel quite awkward and on steady while standing on such a platform as the above.

"For my part, in the dark and troubled night that is upon us, I see no star above the horizon promising light to guide us, but the intelligent, patriotic, united Whig Party of the United States."

DANIEL WEBSTER.

"Keep it Before the People."

At the Union Convention of Barnabrook, which met in February last, the following resolutions were reported by a committee, of which JOHN VAN BUREN WAS A MEMBER, and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That Gen ZACHARY TAYLOR by his masterly correspondence with the War Department no less than by his heroic conduct and indomitable coolness and courage on the field of battle has shown himself to be not only a distinguished military chieftain, but a man of great mental and moral power, and whose life has given evidence of a strong head, an honest heart, and a Republican sympathy of character.

If Gen. TAYLOR is elected he will no more to curb the spirit of Corrupt, and check the spread of Slavery, than any other man the Whigs can elect." JOHN Q. ADAMS.

Taylor Meeting.

The Taylor meeting at the City Hall on Wednesday evening last, to listen to an address from Charles W. Upham of Salem Mass., was fully attended. William Paine Esq. was chosen Chairman, and Albert D. Secretary. The City Hall was packed full of attentive listeners—there were three times as many men who heretofore voted with the Democratic party. There were the hardy lumbermen, and farmers, again upon the words of wisdom and warning came with signal effect from the eloquent lips of the radiant orator.

It has never been out of pleasure to listen to a more effective political speech, or to hear a more massive and clearly stated and ably sustained argument, nor one more happily illustrated. Such an address cannot but do good and we anticipate from it much fruit.

At the close of the address three cheers were given for the orator, and three for Zachary Taylor.

The meeting adjourned in fine spirits to meet at the City Hall on Saturday evening at seven o'clock.

"I am a slave," said a man who has been a very zealous abolitionist for years to yesterday. "The thing holders and politicians have, while pretending to labor for the country, been selling four traps for themselves—keeping in office and leading for the succession, and I shall now stand aside while and see what effect will be produced by bringing into power a new man."

This man undoubtedly expressed the views of thousands of those who have acted with the Democracy.

The New York Herald of 21st ult. says that there were two large failures announced in the street day after day. One large domestic commission house in Broad street and the other a large grocery house in Front street. The first a very extensive, and will fall very heavy upon many Northern and Eastern manufacturers. The last will fall directly upon parties in New York.

Boston Nov 1, 3 P M

There was great Whig turn out and procession in Philadelphia last evening.

Gen Kearney is dead.

The Whigs of New York had an immense meeting at Vauxhall, last evening, at which great enthusiasm was exhibited. Luther B. D. presided—Telegraph to the Portland Union.

South Carolina.

The Washington correspondent of the Journal of Commerce, states that he has heard from South Carolina, that the Legislature of that State will not form a quorum on the 7th of November.

If so, no Electors of President will be chosen as there is no provision of law by which the Legislature afterwards can choose Electors if they fail to attempt to elect on the 7th.

Mr Perry was the last candidate at the September election, and was run against J. C. Saxon Taylor, Wm. W. Taylor, and elected by only two plurality.

Judicious advising in the life of trade, the secret of success. There are, of course, vast numbers of prosperous traders who never advertise in the public prints. But these are exceptions to the general rule. It cannot be doubted that money expended in judicious advertising is one of the very best investments of capital.

We hear good accounts from the Whigs in Washington county.

The ex-reviving of the Locos at Calais has work ad well for the Taylor cause in that region.

The monthly reading of original articles from the "Box" of the Mechanics' Association will take place on this evening. The public are invited to attend.

The Character of Zachary Taylor.

Our Isaac H. Wright Commander of the Maine Association, is presenting the following testimony to the qualifications and fitness of Zachary Taylor for the presidency, in a letter addressed to the Whigs of Lawrence, Mass.

"From my peculiarly favorable opportunities of becoming acquainted with the General during his campaign in Mexico, I feel that I can speak with confidence as to his character, and as well as to his fitness for the position which he is in my opinion, a man of extensive and varied information upon all topics of public interest, a true republican in principle, of the time honored school of Jefferson, a close observer of mankind and events, a profound and independent thinker, and a man whose integrity of purpose, frankness, and benevolence, and whose respect for all observers. For these reasons it is to me a subject of regret that three characteristics of Gen. Taylor are not known to all citizens. Every party, for were they, I believe that he would be called to the chair of state with party count at it. As it is I have along since felt that it would be the support of a very large proportion of the people, whether they call the natives of one party or another, and I do not doubt that he will make as wise and beneficial a President for the country as any ever has possessed."

Substitute for Cream in Coffee.

Beat the White of an egg to froth. Put in a small lump of butter, and gradually turn in coffee to it, so that it may not curdle. It is difficult to distinguish any taste from fresh cream.

Anatomy may be defined the Attic Goddess, as it is frequently practiced as such, and is a matchless work by quadrature, and often ends in rheumatism.

Why is a solar eclipse like a woman beating her baby? Because it is a hiding of the sun.

CAPTURED CHILDREN.

BY THE AUTHOR OF "OLD HICKS THE GOBLIN."

One bright morning, when most of the men were off on a mission, a number of boys—children of the neighborhood—had collected to bathe in a pretty little stream, formed by an eddy of the river opposite my house. I heard their merry yells, and taking down my gun—a habit grown as habitual as breathing—went to see what they were doing. I walked lazily down to the river bank to look at them.

There were five houses within half a mile above and below me. The women, with their sun bonnets on, were tripping across from one house to another, to pay neighborly gossiping visits. The house the boys were about, lay behind them; the gate was swinging and butting at each other out of the peckling, a man ploughing was whistling up a sleepy roundly, groups of cattle in sight were reclining on the grass, slowly grazing away at the everlasting clover, and the scene was a picture of peace and contentment. The boys were clearly defined against the sky. The whole scene was the very ideal of quiet domestic repose.

I remember being particularly struck with the happy and carefree calm that had fallen upon the scene. The boys were laughing and talking, and the women were laughing and talking, and the scene was a picture of peace and contentment.
